GE Language Course 1: ENGLISH LANGUAGE THROUGH LITERATURE- I

Credit: 4 (3 Theory+1 Tutorial/Internal Assessment)

Course objectives:

This course aims to:

- develop in students the ability and confidence to process, understand and examine different kinds of texts-verbal and written-that they encounter in everyday life.
- enable students to identify and understand social contexts and ethical frameworks in the texts they encounter.
- encourage suitable research—to recognize sources; to distinguish fact from opinion/editorialization; produce objective versus subjective pieces
- learn skilled comprehension; listening/reading; skimming; summarizing; précis writing; paraphrasing; note making
- identify key topics/arguments/ideas
- accomplish writing goals: creating an essay; writing a thesis statement; producing topic sentences; developing organised paragraphs; evolving the skill of producing suitable transitions between paragraphs
- enable students to write in expository argumentative and descriptive modes
- help students identify and use the characteristic features of various writing forms: letters; programmes reports/press-releases; newspaper; feature articles; fiction and nonfiction
- enable students to choose between expository, argumentative, descriptive and narrative writing styles to assemble their own writing
- inculcate confident expression: to enable students to articulate their own views confidently as their language skills sufficiently empower them to converse, research and collate information from various textual sources, be these verbal or written.

GE Language Course 7: DEVELOPING ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS- I

Credit: 4 (3 Theory+1 Tutorial/Internal Assessment)

Course objectives:

This course is intended for students who have had inadequate exposure to English and hence exhibit a very low level of proficiency in the language – difficulty in comprehending simple texts, limited vocabulary, a poor grasp of basic syntactical structures, and an inability to speak or write the language with confidence. The course that is spread over two semesters aims to redress these issues and aims to:

- enhance comprehension skills and enrich vocabulary through the reading of short and simple passages with suitable tasks built around these.
- introduce simple syntactical structures and basic grammar to students through contextualized settings and ample practice exercises so that they can engage in short independent compositions.
- introduce the sounds of the language and the essentials of English pronunciation to students in order to remove the inhibitions experienced by them while speaking English.
- acquaint students with social formulae used to perform various everyday functions so that they can converse in English in simple situations.

NOTE: The unit names are indicative only and identify core language areas that are targeted through the course. The learning of various language skills needs to happen in an integrated fashion. It is, therefore, imperative that for every unit, learners should work through the whole range of tasks in the prescribed readings.
